5. and a certain were in one car, whilst the rest were in another two cars. Subject does not remember who the other members were apart from MARTENS. Owing to engine trouble subject and STEINER before leaving the town lost the convoy however owing to the partisan trouble left the car and made their way on foot to COMO where they believed MARTENS was making for and where they knew SART D'ESTIENNE was. Met SART D'ESTIENNE who could not help them. Subject went to the SWISS consulate and was told to remain in COMO however with STEINER and a certain GERONIMI Albini (GABIANI Simon, chauffeur) they made their way to GLENDA hoping to reach by train VIGEVANIA.

6. As it has been pointed out in the above paragraph subject never undertook a mission although willing to do so. Event moved faster than anticipated and so subject was left high and dry in MILAN with no member of any organisation to give him orders. The first time he came into contact with ALLIED forces was in GLENDA when he presented himself to an official of the D.P.H.S.G. who in turn sent him to this section for full interrogation. Whilst in GLENDA he stayed at the ALBERGO ANTONIA MARIA GLENDA. It is known that this man since the liberation of Italy has not been in contact with any intelligence service (enemy) or that he has carried out any subversive activities.

7. It is not known whether all the persons quoted below are in Allied territory however the dates when they were last seen may point as to whether there is a likelihood of them being in A.O.T.

GABIANI Simon. last seen at SIGMARIGHE in January 1945.
ANTIERED. last seen in MILAN in April 1945.
EMIL. last seen in MILAN end of April 1945.
believed to have been killed.
SART D'ESTIENNE. last seen in COMO on 23rd April 1945.
SABIANI Javier. last seen in MILAN at the end of April.

8. Since subject was never briefed for a mission he disclaims all knowledge of how he would have communicated with his superiors.

9. Subject's personal possessions are few and no money apart for less than a thousand lire. He was tattooed all over.
